AN INTRODUCTION TO THE

LAW OF FRANCHISING

SECOND EDITION

A “must have” for franchisors, franchisees and franchise counsel, this single-volume, comprehensive document imparts the basics of franchising and franchise law in “plain English”. Divided into 20 tabbed sections, it’s easy to use and understand. Highlights of the newly revised second edition include:

- Surveys of all applicable domestic and international franchise laws;
- Helpful charts, checklists and a model disclosure document;
- The current FTC Franchise Rule requirements and information about how to prepare franchise disclosure documents in compliance with them;
- Tips for accelerating the franchise registration process.

Published by the International Franchise Association and authored by David J. Kaufmann and David W. Oppenheim of New York City’s Kaufmann, Gildin, Robbins & Oppenheim LLP, this 450+-page bound reference work is available now at a special price of $299 for IFA members; $350 for non-members.
