

Certified Franchise Executive™ (CFE) Program

Getting Started Guide

CONGRATULATIONS ON STARTING YOUR CFE JOURNEY!

As the world's largest membership organization for franchisors, franchisees, and franchise suppliers, the International Franchise Association (IFA) promotes, protects, and enhances franchising by providing industry-leading events, advocacy, education, and growth opportunities to the franchise community.

Highly regarded and widely recognized as a symbol of leadership and accomplishment throughout the franchise community, the CFE is IFA's flagship certification program. Pursuing and maintaining CFE certification is a commitment to mastering the highest level of skills and knowledge in franchising.

Participants in the Certified Franchise Executive (CFE) program will complete an impressive array of course offerings in business development, franchise management, and leadership to gain insights into franchise strategy and operations. This program is designed to provide information about all phases of franchising to assist emerging organizations that are just starting their journey while helping more established leaders understand how to successfully cultivate a growing enterprise.

As you complete your journey toward CFE designation, please use this guide as a resource for candidate qualifications, program requirements, procedures, and course resources.

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Complete the online CFE application form and submit your application fee through the online portal.

IFA Member: $475 | Non-member: $875

The CFE application fee covers administrative and enrollment costs for a three-year period from the date of application.*

NOTE: Please be sure to add your company/affiliation before submitting your CFE application:

- Select 'My Affiliations' on left sidebar menu in IFA portal
- Search for company name or select 'Create New Company' if company is not listed
- Select 'Add Affiliation' next to company's name under Search Results

2. Upon confirmation that your application has been processed, and within two business days, you will receive information to access your CFE record online.

Please be sure to provide all information requested on the application because incomplete applications cannot be processed.*

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

After your application has been reviewed and accepted, you will have three years to complete program requirements for certification.

A minimum of 3500 approved CFE credits are required to qualify for the Certified Franchise Executive (CFE) designation. CFE credits are earned in the following areas:

Experience (500 credits maximum)

CFE candidates will earn 100 credits for each year of experience gained through work or training experiences in the area of franchising. CFE candidates may earn a maximum of 500 credits for career/work experiences as a franchisor, franchisee, or other franchising professional experience.

If you have completed all other program requirements but lack the required experience credits (example: has 3 years of experience upon completing all other requirements), you may satisfy any missing experience credits by completing additional education or participation credits.*

Participation (500 credits maximum)

All CFE candidates must attend at least one IFA approved event each year to gain additional peer-to-peer learning and practical franchising experience. CFE candidates may earn a maximum of 500 credits as designed below:

Membership in IFA or membership in other national franchise association recognized by the World Franchise Council (WFC)	100 credits per year – up to 300 credits max
IFA Annual Convention	100 credits
IFA Franchise Action Network Annual Meeting	100 credits
IFA Legal Symposium	100 credits
IFA Franchise Business Network	50 credits per meeting
Women in Franchise Network	50 credits per meeting
IFA Webinars (e.g. WednesdayWise, etc.)	50 credits per webinar
International Franchise Expo (IFE), Franchise Expo South, West Coast Franchise Expo	50 credits per expo

Education (1900 credits minimum)

Education credits are earned by taking ICFE-approved courses or sessions that cover fundamental skills and knowledge considered essential for a franchise executive. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion
- Economics, Accounting or Financing
- Franchisee Recruitment and Training
- Franchisor/Franchisee Relations

- Franchise Law Regulations
- Human Resource Management
- Management & Operations
- Marketing
- Social Media

*View CFE Course Calendar for a list of approved courses, events, and links to register.

CFE credits will be granted to a CFE candidate for CFE-approved courses or seminars up to one year (12 months) prior to the time that the CFE candidate enrolled in the CFE program.

Mandatory courses for completion of the CFE program:

- IFA Fran-Guard™ program – available via video-on-demand, and at select in-person events listed here: <https://www.franchise.org/events> (required - 300 Fran-Guard credits)
- Online ICFE final exam (required – 300 Exam credits)

All Candidates who enroll in the Certified Franchise Executive program must successfully complete the CFE Exam and the IFA FRAN-GUARD courses (online) as part of the requirements to receive CFE designation. *CFE Exam Study Guides are available for purchase by contacting cfe@franchise.org.

ENROLLING AND REPORTING CREDITS

It is every CFE candidate's personal responsibility to report all credits earned, review credits recorded online and report any discrepancies to the IFA Certification Programs Manager via cfe@franchise.org.

The online training portal with many online course options is available at <https://ifa.tortal.net>.

*Please note you must create an account before you can register for any courses.

The credentials used to access www.franchise.org will not work on the training portals.
