INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION (IBA) — THE GLOBAL VOICE OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organization of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies.

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organization of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and over 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 160 countries. It has considerable expertise in providing assistance to the global legal community.

Divisions and Committees

Grouped into two divisions—the Legal Practice Division and the Public and Professional Interest Division—the IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information. Through the various committees of the divisions, the IBA enables an interchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of business law around the globe.

INTERNATIONAL FRANCHISE ASSOCIATION (IFA)

The International Franchise Association, founded in 1960, is the oldest and largest association in the world representing franchisors, franchisees and suppliers to the franchise community. The IFA represents nearly 1,400 franchisors, thousands of franchisees and more than 700 franchise community suppliers. IFA's members have franchise operations in virtually every corner of the globe, and IFA serves as a resource center for both current and prospective franchisors and franchisees, public policy makers, legislators, regulators, the media and the general public.

IFA's membership services include educational seminars and conferences, publications, trade shows, marketing and promotional assistance, government and public policy activities and international and minority outreach programs. The IFA actively promotes educational awareness programs for franchise investors and educational programs for franchisors to ensure compliance with franchise disclosure laws and regulations. The IFA is instrumental in creating and implementing programs designed to safeguard franchising from abuse by fraudulent operators.
