For the first time in its nearly 50 year history, the IFA now offers a one volume reference work on franchising and franchise law designed to impart the basics in “plain English” both to attorneys and business executives alike. An Introduction To The Law Of Franchising surveys all domestic and international franchise laws; contains charts, checklists and a model disclosure document; and, is a “must have” for franchisors, franchisees and franchise counsel (and has already been distributed to franchise regulators nationwide for their reference).

- Completely revised and updated with the most current FTC Franchise Rule requirements.
- Covers in plain, easy-to-understand English the many federal, state and international laws, rules and regulations governing franchising.
- 3-ring binder includes tables, charts, checklists and databases designed to assist franchisors achieve legal compliance.
- How to prepare a franchise disclosure document under the revised FTC Franchise Rule.
- Includes section on new state requirements.
- Tips for accelerating the franchise registration process.
- The latest on “financial performance representations” (“earnings claims”).

Authored by David J. Kaufmann and David W. Oppenheim of New York City’s Kaufman, Gildin, Robbins & Oppenheim LLP, this new 452-page, 3-ring binder reference work is designed to be easily understood by both attorneys and businesspersons alike. Special introductory price of $299 for members; $350 for non-members; 20% discount for 5 or more orders.

To order your copy, call IFA Publications at 1-800-543-1038.